MASKS ARE PREFERRED

Two light blue surgical masks with white elastic straps are positioned at the bottom of the graphic. One mask is on the left, and the other is on the right, partially overlapping the first. They are set against a white background that transitions from the blue header.
